

Mr Darren Nelson

Senior Industrial Relations Advisor

Background

Darren Nelson is a specialist with over 25 years of experience in Industrial Relations and Human Resources. Darren's experience extends across public, private and not for profit sectors.

Darren has a broad range of contacts in the legal, industrial, political and institutional spheres across Australia. He also manages industrial relations challenges on a day to day basis. This allows him to advise on the best strategic approaches for the commercial resolution of a problem and to implement such approaches.

Darren has particular experience and strengths in Resources, Infrastructure, Construction and Manufacturing sectors including set up and implementation strategies.

Areas of Expertise in Human Resources

- Strategic Industrial Relations
- Human Resource Management
- Operational Management
- Conflict Resolution and Agreement Making
- Global Recruitment Solutions
- OH&S Federal and State jurisdictions
- International Trade

Industry / Functional Experience

- Construction
- Manufacturing
- Mining
- Engineering
- Infrastructure
- Not-for-profits