

Vicki Wong

Employee Relations, Change Management and Industrial Relations

Bachelor of Business (Human Resources Management), Southern Cross University

Diploma in OHS- 2013

Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment -2005

Certificate IV in Business (Frontline Management) - 2001

MAHRI

Background

Vicki has over 17 years' experience in variety of Human Resources, Change Management and Industrial Relations roles. Her expertise includes high order analytical skills and possesses strong negotiating, advocacy and presentation skills.

She is a highly experience Employee Relations and Change Management specialist.

Vicki has led teams to deliver innovative solutions for Clients to migrate organisational risk for global organisations. Her focus is delivering practical business solutions linking people outcome to organisational strategy.

Vicki has a track record in work closely with organisations on organisational review and transformation from conceptualising, designing and delivering various projects with process.

Expertise

- Change Management
- Employee Relations
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Organisation Design and Restructuring
- Organisational Development
- Workplace Health & Safety
- Remuneration and Reward

Sector Experience

- Logistics/Shipping
- Manufacturing
- Engineering
- Not-for-profits
- Construction
- Infrastructure
- Financial Services
- Government